DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the side rails being “extendible”, as in claim 16, must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:.

There is NO Figure “1” as stated in the Specification (only 1A-1C).

Furthermore, similar to the above, the Specification does not discuss the side rails being “extendible”.

Claim Objections

Claim 5 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 2, 3, and 9-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

As concerns claims 2 and 9-11, there is an inconsistency between the language in the preamble and certain portions in the body of the claims, thereby making the scope of the claims unclear. For example, the preamble clearly indicates that the subcombination of a "ladder" is being claimed with the functional recitation of the "ladder" being used "for a truck". However, the body of the claim positively recites the "truck", e.g., "the first leg portion is attached to the tailgate... second leg is attached to the truck" (claim 2); "upon opening the tailgate... lower than where the ladder is fastened to the... truck" (claim 9); "the lower portion... is a bumper of the truck" (claim 10), etc., which indicates the claims as being drawn to a combination of the "ladder" and the "truck". Therefore, the applicant is required to clarify what the claims are intended to be drawn to, i.e., either the "ladder" alone or in combination with the "truck", and to present the claims with the language which is consistent with the invention. The applicant should note that "adapted to be" language may be appropriate if claiming the "ladder" alone (i.e., "adapted to be secured to").

As concerns claims 12 and 14, the phrase "by means of a pivot" is improper. A more appropriate phrase would be "pivoting means".

As concerns claim 15, the phrase "the side rails" lacks antecedent basis and is therefore vague and indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-7, 9-11, and 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Peacock 4,757,876.

Peacock sets forth a ladder comprising a first leg portion having two parallel side rails with at least one rung; the first leg portion pivotally coupled to a second leg portion comprising a single support leg (viewed as the left leg); the legs being lockably pivotally coupled (in the extended position); and the legs being “extendible”. The applicant should note that the process by which an apparatus is made is NOT given patentable weight within an apparatus claim. Therefore, the process limitation of the rails being “pre-fabricated” is not given patentable weight within the instant claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 8 and 12-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Peacock in view of Purkapile 4,773,503.

Peacock sets forth the ladder, as advanced above, except for the hinge being fixable at a plurality of intermediate, angular positions. However, Purkapile teaches a ladder having upper and lower legs being fixable at a plurality of intermediate, angular positions. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the pivoting connection of Peacock by forming it as being fixable at a plurality of intermediate, angular positions, as taught by Purkapile, in order to adapt the ladder to un-level and different height surfaces.
